Preparing for an interview

Employer research
Knowing about an organisation is very important before an interview. Some employers will ask you what you know about their business at an interview!!! if you think of something you would like to know about the job or the organisation, write it down on a list and take it with you to the interview.

Basic facts to discover - Name of company, directors, size of company, amount of employees, branches, products and services provided.

First impressions
- Arrive at least 15 minutes early for the interview.
- Turn your mobile phone off.
- Introduce yourself and shake hands when you arrive.
- Speak clearly, don’t use slang or poor English.
- Address the interviewers by their names.
- Brush your teeth, use deodorant and clean your fingernails.
- Your appearance is important, make sure you have -
  - Neat, clean conservative clothes and shoes
  - Clean and brushed hair
  - Minimal make-up and jewellery
- Be organised, have your portfolio neat and tidy. Include your questions for the employer in the back of your portfolio, together with extra copies of your Resume.
Body language

- Maintain eye contact and smile.
- Occasionally nod your head.
- Answer questions briefly and positively.

Don’t -
- Cross your arms
- Slouch in the chair
- Pick at your fingernails

What to take to an interview

- Your portfolio containing your Resume (plus spare copies), qualifications, references, certificates (including OH & S) etc.
- A copy of your job application, including the advertisement, cover letter.
- Pen and paper
- Your list of questions about the job

Interview format

- Usually an interview will follow these guidelines;
  - The interviewer will give an overview of the position
  - The interviewer will ask you some questions
  - You will be given an opportunity to ask questions
    (this is where you can offer your portfolio to the employer)

Closing the interview

- Thank the interviewer/s for their time.
- Ask when you can expect to hear from them.
