

Application to Enrol in a Victorian Government School

This form has been designed to support students to apply for a place at a Victorian Government School. If a student is offered a place at a school, a School Enrolment Form, with attached supporting documentation, may need to be completed to finalise enrolment.

Your child's right to enrolment

Your child is guaranteed a place at the school they are zoned for, as shown on the Find My School website.

This means that if your child lives within the school zone, they must be offered a place when seeking enrolment. To find the school you are zoned for (referred to as your local school) visit www.findmyschool.vic.gov.au

Going to a school outside your zone

You have the choice to seek enrolment at a school that is not your local school. Your child should be offered a place if the school has sufficient accommodation.

If the school has limited accommodation, applications are considered using the priority order of placement. The priority order of placement prioritises out-of-zone siblings and then students in order of closeness of their home to the school.

In exceptional circumstances, a student may be enrolled in a school based on compassionate grounds. Family and student privacy will be maintained when considering applications on compassionate grounds.

To find out more, visit www.vic.gov.au/how-choose-school-and-enrol

Student tests and interviews

Enrolment offers are not dependent on a satisfactory report or interview. Student tests or interviews may only occur after an enrolment offer has been accepted.

Students with disability

Every student has the right to attend their local school. Students with disability have the same right to enrol in their local school as students without disability.

All schools must make reasonable adjustments so that students with disability can learn and achieve on the same basis as students without disability.

You also have the option to seek enrolment for your child at a government specialist school for students with disability.

International students

Fee-paying international students should apply through the Victorian Student Program at www.study.vic.gov.au

Residential address check

For the enrolment of students in Victorian government schools

When seeking to enrol your child in a Victorian government school, you may be requested to provide supporting documentation. This documentation will assist schools in verifying your permanent residence.

Key enrolment information

Your child is guaranteed a place at their designated neighbourhood school. You can find your designated neighbourhood school and school zone at Findmyschool.vic.gov.au

You can apply for a place at a school that is not your designated neighbourhood school and should be enrolled if the school has enough space.

Establishing a child's permanent residence

Your child's permanent residence is the address at which they permanently reside at the time of enrolment. If your child resides at multiple addresses, their permanent residence is the address at which they spend the majority of their weekdays.

Documents provided as per the 100-point residential address table should match the details recorded on the school enrolment application, including parent's/carer's name and address.

Why does the school need to verify my address for enrolment?

Some schools in Victoria are facing enrolment pressure. To ensure every child can attend their local school, schools may request proof of address to verify that you live within their school zone.

This helps to keep our education system fair and equitable and ensures that children who live within the school zone are being prioritised for enrolment.

100-point residential address check

You may be asked to provide documents to verify your child's permanent residence. Any combination of the following documents is acceptable, as long as they add up to at least 100 points.

Document showing the full name of the child's parent/carer and address	Points
1. One of the following: 1.1. Council rates notice OR 1.2. Lease agreement through a registered real estate agent or rental board bond receipt OR 1.3. Exchanged contract of sale	40
2. Any of the following 2.1. Centrelink payment statement showing home address 2.2. Electoral roll statement	20 each
3. Any of the following documents 3.1. Electricity or gas bill showing the service address* 3.2. Water bill showing the service address* 3.3. Telephone or internet bill showing the service address* 3.4. Driver's licence or government issued ID showing current home address* 3.5. Home building or home contents insurance showing the service address 3.6. Motor vehicle registration or compulsory third party insurance policy showing home address	15 each

up to 3 months old*

Verification of permanent residence

When assessing your child's enrolment application, schools may make some enquiries to confirm the information provided is correct.

This can include:

- Checking the electoral roll at an Australian Electoral Commission office or the Victorian Electoral Commission head office
- Contacting your real estate agent to confirm lease or contract of sale
- Checking whether there are any regulations/codes limiting the occupancy of rented studio apartments or one bedroom units.

Your enrolment application may be unsuccessful if the school is not able to verify your address using the documentation provided.

Inability to provide evidence of permanent residence

If you are unable to provide proof of permanent address because of your individual circumstances, you are encouraged to seek advice from your local school or a Community Liaison Officer in the Regional office.

More information

For more information, contact your local school or visit Starting school.

Enrolment Documentation Checklist for Parents and Carers

Schools collect information as part of the enrolment process to support your child when they start school. To verify this information, schools may ask for supporting documentation.

This checklist details what documents parents and carers must provide when enrolling your child in a Victorian government school. These documents are generally requested after you receive an enrolment offer, except for proof of address and visa documents.

Frequently Asked Questions

What school can I enrol my child in?

Your child is guaranteed a place at their local school (the school they are zoned for). To find your local school, visit the Find my School website at www.findmyschool.vic.gov.au. You can also request enrolment at another government school, even if you do not live in the school zone. Your child should be offered enrolment if the school has available places.

Why do I need to provide supporting documents to the school?

Schools require supporting documents to verify your child's name, date of birth, address, residency status, care arrangements and medical or health-related needs. These documents help the school meet their legal responsibilities and ensure your child receives appropriate support when they start school. They also help the school to correctly respond to your child's needs in the event of a first aid incident or medical emergency.

How do I know what supporting documents I need to provide?

Read this checklist to see what documents are required. Not all documents are mandatory and may depend on your child's individual circumstances. If you have any questions, please contact your school for support.

When do I need to provide supporting documents to the school?

Schools request supporting documents after your child has been offered enrolment. This is generally when you are asked to complete a full enrolment form. The only exception is proof of address and temporary residency visa documents for international students, which schools may request earlier.

Do I need to provide all the suggested documents if my child is moving from a government school to a new government school?

No, if your child is enrolled in a government school and is moving to another government school, you do not need to provide all the suggested documents. Examples of required documents might include recent proof of address and updated health and medical records. The school will let you know what supporting documents you need to provide.

Can I submit digital copies of the required documents, or do they need to be physical copies?

Yes, you can provide copies of documents to the school either in-person or digitally. You do not need to provide documents in their original form.

What if a school requests a document not on the checklist?

You do not need to provide additional documents to enrol your child, e.g. NAPLAN results or school reports. However, sharing more information once your child has been offered enrolment can help the school better understand and support your child's learning needs.

Note: This does not apply to international students on temporary visas who must apply with the Department of Education International Education and may require further documentation.

What should I do if I can't provide a document or need more information?

It is important that you provide all required documentation, so your child receives appropriate support when starting school. If documents are missing or if information is incomplete, the school may delay your child's admission for up to 5 days. During this time, you will need to collect and submit the missing documents to the school. If you do not have all the documents needed for your child's enrolment, please contact the school for support. Schools are committed to ensuring enrolment practices do not unfairly disadvantage families facing difficult situations, such as those experiencing homelessness, family violence or recently arrived immigrants or refugees.

How long will the school keep my child's information?

The school will keep most of the information you provide for at least 7 years. This is so the school complies with public record keeping laws. The school will also need to keep a permanent summary of your child's information. This summary includes your child's name, date of birth, address and the name and contact details of any parent or carer of the student.

How is my information managed by a school?

The Department of Education and schools value your privacy and are committed to protecting information that schools collect. All information collected in the enrolment form and supporting documentation is managed as described in the schools' privacy policy (available here: www.vic.gov.au/schools-privacy-policy).
